

An Empty Mansion

In my Father's house are many mansions . . . I go to prepare a place for you.

E♭ - 2c - DO

John 14:2

1. Here I la - bor and toil as I look for a home, Just an
 2. Ev - er thank - ful am I that my Sav - ior and Lord Prom - ised
 3. When my la - bor and toil - ing have end - ed be - low And my hum - ble a - bode a - mong men, While in heav - en a man - sion un - to the wea - ry sweet rest; Noth - ing more could I ask than hands shall lie fold - ed in rest, I'll ex - change this old home for is wait - ing for me And a gen - tle voice plead - ing, "Come in."

 a man - sion a - bove, There to live with the saved and the blest.
 a man - sion up there And in - vite the arch - an - gel as guest.

Chorus

There's a man - sion now emp - ty, just wait - ing for me, At the © Copyright 1939 by Stamps-Baxter Music Company. Renewed 1966. Assigned to M. Lynwood Smith Pub.

Beuna O. B. Karnes, alt.

All Rights Reserved.

Clarence A. Luttrell

end of life's trou - ble - some way, And I know that the Sav - ior will wel - come me there Near the door of that man - sion some day.