

The Armor Of Light

1. The hour is at hand to a - wak - en; The day of sal - va - tion is here!
2. The temp - ter is shrewd and un - ceas - ing; The bat - tle is al - ways at hand.
3. Now cut off each source of temp - ta - tion, What - ev - er it takes to be pure.

As sons of the king - dom un - shak - en, Rise up and cast out all your fear!
But ev - en with pres - sure in - creas - ing, Our Cap - tain is still in com - mand.
The joy of e - ter - nal sal - va - tion Is worth an - y pain you en - dure!

Far gone is the time spent in weak - ness; Far gone are the shades of the night.
Now streng - thened by prayer and con - fes - sion, We are not a - lone in the fight!
For sin I will make no pro - vi - sion, But put on the Lord Je - sus Christ.

Now cast off the works done in dark - ness, And put on the ar - mor of light.
Now lay down the weight of trans - gres - sion, And put on the ar - mor of light.
Each day I will make the de - ci - sion To put on the ar - mor of light.
