

Walking in the Light of God

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. Psalm 119:105

C - 4 - M1†

1. Like a lamp un - to your feet, A light from heav - en glows,
2. Like a lamp un - to your feet, The ho - ly light - beams shine,
3. Like a lamp un - to your feet, The light makes plain the way,

From the land which needs no sun or moon Nor ev - er dark - ness knows,
With the bright - ness of a cloud - less sun, A glo - ry all di - vine;
Turn - ing not a - side where shad - ows lin - ger, Lest a - far you stray;

And ra - dant with a liv - ing splen - dor Makes the way so bright, Tho' you must go 'mong bri'rs and bram - bles, Noth - ing shall you fear, Keep in the path, tho' it is ston - y, Nev - er need you fall,

You can walk, safe - ly walk, On the up - ward path of right.
Ev - er walk, safe - ly walk, In the light so white and clear.
Ev - er walk, safe - ly walk, In the light that shines for all.
(1.) You can walk, safe - ly walk,

Chorus

O walk, walk, walk in the light of God; In the light, the per - fect Walk, walk, walk, walk, light, Mak-ing plain the path of right, Walk in in the light, Walk, walk, walk, walk the path of right, faith, walk in trust Up the slope where saints have Walk in faith, walk in trust, trod; Keep the nar-row way, Lead-ing brave - ly trod; Walk, walk, walk the nar - row way, Walk, on to end-less day, Walk in hope, walk, walk, walk to end - less day, glow - ing hope, walk in peace, In the per-fect light of God.

calm and peace, light of God.
